Scholarship Information

This scholarship was established in 2004 in memory of Reverend Houshiah Brady, Jr., Founder and CEO of the Center for Re-Creation and Family Training (C.R.A.F.T.). Rev. Houshiah Brady, Jr. was a devoted pastor, teacher, and an inspiring leader in the Providence Community. He earned C.R.A.F.T. in 1976 and for over 20 years, demonstrated to the community (especially to young African-American males that were in the Eagles Program) that they have the ability to SHARPE LIKE EAGLES.

Recipients of this scholarship receive assistance for undergraduate college level courses. This scholarship may be awarded each year if funding is available. The scholarship amount awarded will be from $1000 - $1000.

Please complete the information below and attach a typed, one-page letter of recommendation for the above named applicant, expressing what you feel is noteworthy about the applicant in relation to his/her academic achievement, personal characteristics, maturity, special talents, motivation, leadership potential etc., that would make them qualified to receive this scholarship.
